

Program & Film Contest

The Directing Change Program and Film Contest invites youth throughout California to Direct Change by submitting 60-second films about suicide prevention and mental health. The winning teams and their associated schools/organizations will win prizes, receive prevention programs and other resources for their schools, and attend the award ceremony at the end of the school year. Visit the program website for contest rules and information: www.birectingChangeCA.org.

Volunteers needed!

We are now seeking judges to help us select the winning films. Deadline to sign up is March 1, 2018

Judges.....

- Participate in a brief judging orientation (via phone or webinar) in February or March 2018.
- Review up to 12 sixty-second film submissions and complete an online scoring form for each film in March. (A time commitment of less than two hours.)
- Are recognized on the contest website and in the award ceremony program.
